

Omaha – MACCH Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP)

Tenant Authorization Form

For Property Owners initiating an Application on Behalf of Their Tenant

I,

residing at the property:

authorize my property owner, landlord, or property manager to begin an application for emergency rental assistance on my behalf with the Omaha – MACCH Emergency Rental Assistance Program. I authorize the program to communicate with my property owner about the rental assistance and application process on my behalf, including documentation including but not limited to lease or rental agreement, statements of past due rent, contact information, and the status of the application. I understand that the application initiated by the property owner on my behalf will not be considered complete until I have completed the tenant portion of the application. I also understand that my property owner initiating the application does not mean that the request for assistance has been or will be approved.
